

Easter Hymns

Part 2: Intermezzo Op.116 No.4

Narration arranged
by David Van Alstyne

Johannes Brahms

from LDS Hymns:

"He Is Risen!" #109

"Oh, What Songs of the Heart" #286

"I Know That My Redeemer Lives" #136

He is risen; He is risen!

p

m.d.

5 Tell it out with joyful voice. He has burst his three days' prison; Let the whole wide earth rejoice! Death is conquered. Man is free!

m.d.

10 Oh what songs of the heart we shall sing all the day when again we assemble at home;

p

14 When we meet ne'er to part with the blest o'er the way, there no more from our loved ones to roam!

m.d.

Though our rapture and bliss
there's no song can express, we will shout, we will sing o'er and o'er

19

m.d. f p

As we greet with a kiss, and with joy we caress
all our loved ones that passed on before.

24

f p

Oh what songs we'll employ! Oh what welcome we'll hear! while our transports of love are complete; As the heart swells with joy in embraces most dear

28

espress. cresc. dim. molto smorzando

when our heavenly parents we meet.

32

m.d. dim.

I know that my redeemer lives; what comfort this sweet sentence gives!

37

He lives who once was dead. He lives my everlasting head.

41

He lives to comfort
me when faint.

He lives to hear my
soul's
complaint.

He lives to silence
all my fears.

He lives to
wipe away
my tears.

45

dim. pp

He lives to calm my troubled heart,
all blessings to impart.

49

He lives my kind, wise heavenly friend.
He lives and loves me to the end.

He grants me
daily breath,
and I shall
conquer death.

55

f pp

s. m.d. s. m.d.

He lives my mansion to prepare

He lives to bring me safely there.

60

All glory
to his name.

He lives
my savior still
the same.

63

O sweet the joy
this sentence gives:

I know that
my redeemer lives.
